

Rules and Expectations:

- The use of Tobacco is STRICTLY prohibited during the IMUN'25 Conference, this includes vapes, cigarettes, or any type of Tobacco. If these products are found with anyone during the conference, they will be confiscated and NOT returned.
- The possession of alcohol will not be tolerated. If found on a participant's person, not only will the alcohol be confiscated, but the participant's school will be contacted. This participant will immediately be removed from the conference without receiving a refund.
- The excessive use of phones during sessions is prohibited. chairing panels reserve the right to confiscate phones and other electronic devices if used inappropriately.
- Any forms of bullying or mockery are not tolerated in the conference.
- Participants are expected to be punctual.
- All participants are to adhere to the dress code stated below.
- If delegates are required to leave or arrive late at the conference at any point due to an emergency, they must communicate with their President, the Secretariat Team, the IMUN Coordinator, and the Coordinator of the Delegate's school.

Please note that;

- The IMUN team values the safety and well being of the participants and expects the delegates to comply with the rules and regulations.
- The IMUN Secretariat Team and IMUN Coordinator reserve the right to remove any participant from the conference if the rules and expectations are breached.
- Parents will be contacted in case of an emergency and any necessary arrangements will be made while adhering to the conference policies and procedures.

Dress Code For Females:

Females are to adhere to a business formal dress code, this includes blazers, suits, formal pants and appropriate tops. Jewelry is permitted if not excessive. Participants are obligated to refrain from violating the following guidelines:

- Strapless tops, as well as crop tops, tube tops, low cuts, sleeveless tops, off-shoulder tops, spaghetti-strapped tops are strictly prohibited if worn without an overgarment.
- Micro-mini, mini, and above the knee skirts are not allowed.
- Knee-length skirts must be worn with tights.
- Undergarments should not be seen.
- Female participants are advised not to wear heels.

Dress Code for Males:

Those attending are required to wear a blazer, formal pants, dress shoes, and a formal shirt. It is advised that male attendees wear a tie. Male attendees should NOT wear:

- Casual Clothing (Jeans, Tshirts, ETC.),
- Sports, Sleeping or active clothing,
- Military or national clothes.

